ORDER ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Having reviewed Magistrate Judge Kennard P. Foster's Report and Recommendation that Amanda Dill's supervised release be revoked, pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. §3401(i), Rule 32.1(a)(1) Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and Title 18 U.S.C. §3583, the Court now approves and adopts the Report and Recommendation as the entry of the Court, and orders (a) a sentence imposed of confinement of five months to the custody of the Attorney General; (b) upon completion of the confinement of five months to the custody of the Attorney General, defendant will be placed on two years of supervised release, a condition of which requires 63 days at a residential reentry center, namely, Volunteers of America, in Indianapolis, Indiana; and (c) during her supervised release, defendant will be subject to the previously-imposed conditions ordered at the time of sentencing.
